

Branov Designs Pty Ltd & Michael Branov

Melbourne Magistrates' Court - concluded 16 December 2015.

The company, Branov Designs Pty Ltd, pleaded guilty to 5 charges relating to holding itself out to be an architect while not being an approved company, in breach of the Architects Act 1991.

The company's director, Michael Branov, pleaded guilty to 5 charges of being knowingly concerned in or party to the commission of the offences of the company, in breach of the Architects Act 1991.

Magistrate Reynolds imposed an aggregate fine of $5,000 against the company and its director and indicated that if the matter had been contested instead of dealt with on a plea of guilty the fine would have been $10,000. The company and its director were also liable for $6,641 of the ARBV's costs.
